

NANPA's 15th Annual Summit

February 18 – February 22, 2009

Albuquerque Convention Center & Hyatt Regency Hotel
Albuquerque, NM

Outreach Event (Philip Hyde Grant), Tax Deductible Sponsorship and Donation Opportunities

This fourth annual event will be open to NANPA members and the local community. More than 700 photographers, editors and photo professionals typically attend the NANPA Summit. We also expect at least 100 attendees from the local community to attend the Outreach Event. The title of the event is Conservation Photography in a Changing World. Our emcee will be world renowned photographer Art Wolfe. The speakers will be: Daniel Beltrá, a Spanish photographer based in Seattle, Daniel Beltrá brings his background in biology and photojournalism to conservation photography. His Amazon rainforest photos have won awards at the World Press Photo competition and from Pictures of the Year International (POYi). The other featured speaker will be Chris Linder, a conservation photographer focused on communicating the stories of scientific research in the field. He also has a master's degree in ocean engineering and pursues both photography and research as a research associate at the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. Door prizes will also be awarded. Sponsorship and cash donations to the event will go to the Philip Hyde Grant fund of the NANPA Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The event will be held Friday, February 20, 2009 from 7:30 to 9:30 pm. See www.nanpafoundation.org/hyde_grant.html and www.nanpa.org/conferences/Summit2009/outreach/.
