

16th Annual Nature Photography Summit presented by NANPA

February 16 – February 21, 2010
John Ascuaga's Nugget Hotel & Casino
Reno, Nevada

Outreach Event (Philip Hyde Grant), Tax Deductible Sponsorship and Donation Opportunities

This fifth annual event will be open to NANPA members and the local community. More than 600 photographers, editors and photo professionals typically attend the Nature Photography Summit. Door prizes will also be awarded. Sponsorship and cash donations to the event will go to the Philip Hyde Grant fund of the NANPA Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The event will be held Thursday evening, February 18th. The theme for the event is Conservation Photography: All Subjects, Great and Small and the speakers and their topics will be Canadian photographer Garth Lenz, *Opportunities and Challenges in Forest Conservation and Harvard scientist and photographer Piotr Naskrecki, *Photographing the Sixth Extinction.

For more information about the Philip Hyde Grant and the outstanding work of former winners, see the NANPA web site at http://www.nanpafoundation.org/hyde_grant.html. The 2010 Outreach Event is described in more detail on the 2010 Summit web site at <http://www.nanpa.org/conferences/Summit2010/>.
