

SNRS 2011 Abstract Submissions
SNRS 25th Annual Conference
SNRS: Celebrating 25 Years of Nursing Research
February 16-19, 2011
Jacksonville, Florida

The Southern Nursing Research Society Annual Conference provides an opportunity for SNRS members to report ongoing and completed research as well as theoretical, conceptual, and methodological projects to colleagues. We are using the Scholar One abstract submission system. Please read all directions carefully since the procedures for abstract submission have changed.

The following attachment is a tip sheet of information and items that you will need prior to starting your abstract submission. Having this information and these items readily available when you start to submit your abstract will facilitate your submission process. We look forward to receiving your 2011 abstract and seeing you in Jacksonville, FL.

February 16-19, 2011
Jacksonville, Florida

Each SNRS member may submit only one abstract in each category (podium, poster, symposia). Duplicate submissions as first author will not be accepted or reviewed. SNRS membership is NOT required at the time of abstract submission, by SNRS membership is REQUIRED at the time of presentation. SNRS membership is not required for co-authors, and there is no limit in the number of submissions for co-authors. Each abstract is limited to 2,250 characters for the text of the abstract. You will be advised of your character count usage throughout the submission process.

Presentations will be selected on the basis of scientific merit by means of blind review.

SNRS members (as lead author) may submit ONE abstract in each category:

- Podium Presentations are individual papers grouped by Research Interest Group (RIG) or Thematic Area with 4 to 5 other papers per session. Typically, presenters have 10 minutes for the presentation and 5 minutes for Q&A. Only one presenter per abstract presents the paper.
- Podium (paper) and symposium presentation abstracts must show evidence that the research (or theoretical/conceptual/methodological work) is complete at the time of abstract submission.
- As lead author you will be asked to provide your name, SNRS member number (if you are a member at the time of submission), institution affiliation, position title and disclosures.
- For each additional author(s), you will be asked to provide names, institution affiliation, position title, SNRS membership status and number, and disclosures. SNRS membership is not required for additional authors.
- Text for abstract (limited to 2,250 characters).

- Poster Presentations are grouped by Research Interest Group (RIG) and displayed for a one day period. One presenter is required to be present for a designated viewing session to engage in discussion and Q&A with conference attendees.
- Poster presentation abstracts may include work in progress and/or preliminary data analysis, though data collection and analysis must be complete at the time of the conference presentation.
- As lead author you will be asked to provide your name, SNRS member number (if you are a member at the time of submission), institution affiliation, position title and disclosures.
- For each additional author(s), you will be asked to provide names, institution affiliation, position title, SNRS membership status and number, and disclosures. SNRS membership is not required for additional authors.
- Text for abstract (limited to 2,250 characters).

- Symposium Presentations are 4 to 5 papers (including an overview) from different authors that have a consistent topic/theme with the introductory (overview) paper outlining the theme/framework for all the other papers. The symposium leader is responsible for organizing the group into a cohort whole and submitting all abstracts to the online system. The lead author on each abstract must be an SNRS member at the time of presentation.
- The symposium leader is responsible for gathering all abstracts related to the symposium and submitting the complete symposium abstract package online. Before submitting the abstracts online you should have the following information. This information must be entered by the symposium leader. All communications will be sent to the symposium leader. The symposium leader is responsible for communicating with symposium abstract authors.
- Symposium overview papers are evaluated using the symposium overview criteria. The symposium overview must be submitted first.
 - As lead author you will be asked to provide your name, SNRS member number (if a member at the time of submission), institution affiliation, position title and disclosures.
 - For each additional author(s), you will be asked to provide names, institution affiliation, position title, SNRS membership status and number, and disclosures. SNRS membership is not required for additional authors.
 - Text for overview abstract (limited to 2,250 characters).
- Individual symposium papers are evaluated using the paper/poster abstract criteria. All symposium individual paper abstracts must describe completed work at the time of abstract submission.

- For each abstract (limited to 3-4 abstracts per symposium). The symposium leader is responsible for adding all abstracts through the online system.
- Lead author: You will be asked to provide lead author name for abstract, SNRS member number (if known at the time of submission), institution affiliation, position title and disclosures.
- Additional authors: You will be asked to provide names, institution affiliation, position title, and disclosures. SNRS membership is not required for additional authors.
- Text for abstract (limited to 2,250 characters).
